

“Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice ²⁹and come forth – those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.” Jn 5:28-29

1. If there is no literal resurrection of the body, the Bible is _____.

2. There are _____ of resurrections:

- Resurrection of _____
- Resurrection of _____

3. The three _____ of salvation:

- _____
- _____
- _____

4. The resurrection of the body fully _____ our salvation

5. Jesus spoke _____ and _____ about the resurrection of the body.

6. The _____ and _____ offer a preview of the resurrection.

7. The model for the resurrection is _____ body

- He was able to circumvent shut _____ and _____
- His body was _____ and could be _____
- He could _____ in His resurrection body

8. _____ is the “resurrection chapter”

- Jesus is the _____ of many resurrections
- Our resurrection is a virtual _____ of the firstfruits
- If there is no coming resurrection, our _____ is vain
- Burying the body is like _____
- There are many “kinds of _____” in the universe
- There is a “_____ body”
- We will trade our _____ body for a _____ one
- We must have a _____ body to inherit God’s kingdom
- The day we get our “new” body:
- This should spur us on to _____, _____, and a _____