

Biblical Types

“The deeper message within the message”

Part 3: “Adam”

“The typology of the Old Testament is the very alphabet of the language in which the doctrine of the New Testament is written; ...” Robert Anderson

1. Adam – man or myth?

2. If Adam is a myth:

- The entire message of Scripture is _____
- _____ is unnecessary
- Many books in the Bible are _____
- Jesus was _____
- The Gospel must be _____

3. Scripture declares that Adam is a type:

4. Scripture compares Adam and Jesus:

- Equates the _____ of Adam & Jesus:

- They were both _____ after God pronounced them good:
- What they did affected the _____:

5. Scripture contrasts Adam and Jesus:

- Adam was the “_____” and Jesus was the “_____”:
- Adam brought _____ ending in _____, Christ brought _____ ending _____: