

Review Questions

1. What is a genealogy? The study of a family tree.
2. What book of the Bible gives the genealogies from Adam to Abraham? Genesis.
3. How many years were there between Adam—the first man—and Noah? 1,056 years.
4. How many years are between Noah and Abraham? 952 years.
5. Who does the genealogy in Genesis 5 end with? Noah and his sons.
6. Which son of Noah begins the genealogy in Genesis 11:10—Shem, Ham, or Japheth? Shem.
7. Who does the genealogy in Genesis 11 end with? Abram/Abraham.
8. True or False: Shem, Ham, and Japheth were triplets. False.
9. How many years are between Adam and Abraham? About 2,000 years.
10. Who was Abraham's father: Seth, Shem, or Terah? Terah.
11. How many years are there between Abraham and when Jesus was born? About 2,000.
12. How long ago did Jesus live? About 2,000 years ago.
13. How many years between Adam and us? About 6,000 years.
14. What kind of dating do some scientists use to calculate the age of the earth as millions or billions of years? Radiometric dating.
15. Where should we begin our search for information about creation? God's Word.
16. True or False: Rocks on the earth can be billions of years old. False.
17. How old is the earth according to Genesis? About 6,000 years old.
18. What is the memory verse we are working on? Psalms 8:5–6.
19. According to our memory verse, God gave man dominion over what? The works of His hands; creation.