Gen 2:15

And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it (to work, to labor, to till) and to keep it (to watch over it).

Ex 20:9-11

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

The Apostle Paul

1 Timothy 5:8

But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

Marx believed that private property is the root of all evil in the world. It created two classes: The exploiters & the exploited.

Each will produce according to his ability and each will receive according to his need.

Marx's goal:

“To dethrone God & private property.”

1. Destroy the State –

- Government is the “instrument of power”-the unnatural appendage of society – which is created for the express purpose of protecting the privileged class and the private property is possesses from the just demands of the exploited class.

“To dethrone God & private property.”

2. Destroy Christianity –

Ludwig Feurbach:

“The turning point

when man

that the only God
of man is man
himself.”

“We must combat religion – this is the ABC of materialism, and consequently Marxism.”

Three steps:

1. Opposites / perpetual conflict

3. Transformation (change)

“Marx and Engels accepted the fact that the remaking of the world will have to be a cruel and ruthless task and that it will involve the destruction of all who stand in the way. This is necessary, they said, in order to permit the Communist leadership to wipe out the social and economic sins of human imperfection in one clean sweep and then gradually introduce a society of perfect harmony which will allow all humanity to live scientifically, securely and happily during all future ages.”

080220 Paul Blair Marx Man or Gods Man Part 1

“Marx attempted to soften the blow of his doctrine of violence by stating that he would be perfectly satisfied if the capitalistic state could be transformed into a Communist society by peaceful means; however, he pointed out that this would be possible only if the capitalists voluntarily surrendered their property and power to the representatives of the workers without a fight. He logically concludes that since this is rather unlikely it must be assumed that revolutionary violence is unavoidable. Marx and Engels were also convinced that the revolution must be international in scope. They knew that all countries would not be ready for the revolution at the same time, but all Marxist writers have emphasized the “impossibility of the complete and final victory of socialism in a single country without the victory of the revolution in other countries.”

““We say that our morality is wholly subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat.” In other words, whatever tends to bring about the Communist concept of material betterment is morally good, and whatever does not is morally bad. This concept is simply intended to say that “the end justifies the means.” It is not wrong to cheat, lie, violate oaths or even destroy human life if it is for a good cause. This code of no morals accounts for the amoral behavior on the part of Communists which is frequently incomprehensible to non-Communists.”
