Key to Remember!

Marx believed that man was not responsible for his actions; he is victim of his environment.

All problems in human history come from economics – the class struggle between the people that owned property and those who worked for the property owners.

Marx contrasted what he considered adversarial opposites as: oppressors and the oppressed. Exploiters and the exploited. The one percent and the 99 percent.

Marx believed that private property is the root of all evil in the world.

In his warped thinking, it created two classes: The exploiters & the exploited.

Each will produce according to his ability and each will receive according to his need.

A faded, grayscale portrait of Karl Marx is visible in the background of the slide. He has a long, white beard and hair, and is wearing a dark coat.

Private Property Ownership is propped up by:

1. The State (Police)
2. The Church (Christianity)
3. The Family

According to the Bible, what 3 institutions did God establish on earth?

1. The Family
2. The Church
3. Civil Government (The State)

Marx's goal:

“To dethrone God & private property.”

1. Destroy the State –

- Government is the “instrument of power”-the unnatural appendage of society – which is created for the express purpose of protecting the privileged class and the private property is possesses from the just demands of the exploited class.

“Very soon the necessity of observing the simple fundamental rules of everyday social life in common will have become a habit.”

“The proletariat has the instinctive capacity to recognize justice on sight.”

Marx's goal:

“To dethrone God & private property.”

2. Destroy Christianity –

- One of the most important tasks of the Cultural revolution affecting the wide masses is the task of...combatting religion—the opium of the people.

Ludwig Feurbach:

“The turning point in history will be when man becomes aware that the only God
of man is man himself.”

“We must combat religion – this is the ABC of materialism, and consequently Marxism.”

“To
dethrone
God and destroy capitalism.”

Marx's goal:

“To dethrone God & private property.”

3. Eliminate the family—

- The family was a tool to justify and facilitate private property ownership.

“Beginning with March 1, 1919, the right to possess women between the ages of 17 and 32 is abolished ... this decree, however, not being applicable to women who have five children.... By virtue of the present decree no woman can any longer be considered as private property and all women become the property of the nation...Any man who wishes to make use of a nationalized woman must hold a certificate issued by the administrative Council ...Any pregnant woman will be dispensed of her duties for four months before and three months after the birth of the child.... One month after birth, children will be placed in an institution entrusted with their care and education. They will remain there to complete their instruction and education.

“There is no such thing as a woman being violated by a man; he who says that a violation is wrong denies the October Communist Revolution. To defend a violated woman is to reveal oneself as a bourgeois and a partisan of private property.”

“Marx and Engels accepted the fact that the remaking of the world will have to be a cruel and ruthless task and that it will involve the destruction of all who stand in the way. This is necessary, they said, in order to permit the Communist leadership to wipe out the social and economic sins of human imperfection in one clean sweep and then gradually introduce a society of perfect harmony which will allow all humanity to live scientifically, securely and happily during all future ages.”

“Marx attempted to soften the blow of his doctrine of violence by stating that he would be perfectly satisfied if the capitalistic state could be transformed into a Communist society by peaceful means; however, he pointed out that this would be possible only if the capitalists voluntarily surrendered their property and power to the representatives of the workers without a fight. He logically concludes that since this is rather unlikely it must be assumed that revolutionary violence is unavoidable. Marx and Engels were also convinced that the revolution must be international in scope. They knew that all countries would not be ready for the revolution at the same time, but all Marxist writers have emphasized the “impossibility of the complete and final victory of socialism in a single country without the victory of the revolution in other countries.”

““We say that our morality is wholly subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat.” In other words, whatever tends to bring about the Communist concept of material betterment is morally good, and whatever does not is morally bad. This concept is simply intended to say that “the end justifies the means.” It is not wrong to cheat, lie, violate oaths or even destroy human life if it is for a good cause. This code of no morals accounts for the amoral behavior on the part of Communists which is frequently incomprehensible to non-Communists.”
