

1. Cherub (Plural: cherubim)

- _____ and _____ God on His throne
- Involved with the _____ of God
- They dwell primarily _____
- Their physical description includes:
 - Some are seen _____ with _____
 - _____ was a cherub

2. Seraph (Plural: seraphim)

- Their name means “_____” (used also of the “_____” the Lord sent to punish Israel, Num 21:6)
- It is believed that the title refers to their _____ and _____ to God
- They are seen in Scripture as _____ the King as he sits upon his throne
- They are ready at once to _____ God
- Appear to be _____
- Their form appears to be _____ with the addition of _____

3. Archangel

- Archangel occurs only _____ in the Bible, both times in the New Testament. Archangel means _____.

- The only archangel actually called such in Scripture is _____.
- It is possible that Michael is the only archangel, since he is called “_____ archangel.” Scripture does not say there is only one archangel, so there could be many of them. If so, Michael seems to be the _____ archangel and appears to be the _____ of all angels.
- Michael is the protector of _____
- Michael _____ the devil
- Michael will participate in the _____ of believers

Michael enjoys a prominent role in Scripture, but his glory is always subservient to the glory of _____. (Heb 1:7-14)

4. Living Creatures

5. Thrones, dominions, principalities

6. Authorities and Powers

7. Again, Michael and Gabriel appear to be the _____ of the rest of the angels:

8. Angels are also known by such names as:

- _____ of the _____ –
- _____ of God –
- _____ –
- _____ Ones –
- _____ –
- _____ –

9. _____ have similar distinctions as the holy angels