

1. The only way to avoid doctrinal error or heresy is to embrace the _____ of Scripture

2. But didn't Jesus say His followers will do greater works than He had done?

3. Do believers actually possess the authority of Jesus?

4. But isn't Jesus our example? Aren't we supposed to do what Jesus did?

"Being like Jesus" is primarily talking about emulating His _____, _____, and His _____ in the face of trials and temptation – not performing _____ or more _____ miracles than He.

5. The ministry of Jesus and the Apostles was _____

- _____ did not work miracles
- Miracles were not _____

6. Not every believer is an _____. Apostles had to satisfy certain requirements:

- They had to be _____
- They had to _____
- They had to _____

7. There is a difference between _____ and _____

The miracles in Scripture are described but not necessarily prescribed =

- The sign gifts were performed by the _____ or a close _____ of an Apostle
- _____ were performed by the Apostle or close associates (Stephen, Phillip, Barnabas) and were understood to be part of the “_____”
- Everyone who had the power to exercise demons had the power to _____ and _____.
- Not _____ Christian performed an exorcism.
- Miracles were not _____.

Interestingly, even though the book of Acts covers a period of _____, Luke records only _____ exorcisms occurring during that time.

The word “demon” appears in the – Gospels _____ times, Epistles _____ times, and in Rev _____ times

The words “Evil” or “unclean spirit” appear in the – Gospels _____ times, Acts _____ times, Epistles _____ times, Rev _____ times

For a total of _____ times in the Gospels, _____ times in Acts, and _____ times in the Epistles

Of the 119 times these words appear in the New Testament, _____ are in the historical section of N.T. – which is _____