

1. With the exception of Jesus, has anyone yet received their glorified bodies?

- Since they did not see death, did Enoch and Elijah receive their glorified bodies when they were taken to heaven?
- Others raised from the dead _____ receive glorified bodies and _____ again
 - _____ -
 - _____ -
 - _____ -
- We assume those raised from the dead after Jesus was resurrected _____ receive their glorified bodies and shed their _____ once they were taken to heaven

2. In what state are those in who have died but not yet received their resurrection bodies?

They are _____ spirits without _____:

3. Why do we think believers will retain their personalities, keep their memories intact, will recognize one another, etc?

- The _____
- _____ and the _____
- The _____ of Jesus
- Those martyred by _____

4. What is the Christian position on cremation?

- Our bodies are made of _____ and will _____
- At the resurrection, the Lord will reconstitute _____ body – no matter _____
- Christians have traditionally buried their dead as an act of _____ in a coming _____ – just as a _____

But, since Scripture gives no direct command concerning burial, cremation is a _____ – as long as we clearly communicate our:

Jn 5:28-29 Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice ²⁹ and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.