Huck on the spinster, Miss Watson:

“Now she had got a start, and she went on and told me all about the good place. She said all a body would have to do there was to go around all day long with a harp and sing, forever and ever. So I didn’t think much of it. But I never said so. I asked her if she reckoned Tom Sawyer would go there, and she said not by a considerable sight. I was glad about that, because I wanted him and me to be together.”

Is 40:12-28 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, measured heaven with a span and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure? Weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? <sup>13</sup> Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord, or as His counselor has taught Him? <sup>14</sup> With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge, And showed Him the way of understanding? <sup>15</sup> Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust on the scales; look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing. ... <sup>17</sup> All nations before Him are as nothing, and they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless. <sup>18</sup> To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him? ...

<sup>21</sup> Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? <sup>22</sup> It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers, Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in. <sup>23</sup> He brings the princes to nothing; He makes the judges of the earth useless. <sup>24</sup> Scarcely shall they be planted, scarcely shall they be sown, scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth, when He will also blow on them, and they will wither, and the whirlwind will take them away like stubble. <sup>25</sup> "To whom then will you liken Me, or to whom shall I be equal?" says the Holy One. <sup>26</sup> Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these things,

Heaven: “Our belief that Heaven will be boring betrays a heresy – that God is boring. There’s no greater nonsense. Our desire for pleasure and the experience of joy come directly from God’s hand. He made our taste buds, adrenaline, sex drives, and the nerve endings that convey pleasure to our brains. Likewise, our imaginations and our capacity for joy and exhilaration were made by the very God we accuse of being boring. Are we so arrogant as to imagine that human beings came up with the idea of having fun?”

The very qualities we admire in others – every one of them – are true of God. He’s the source of everything we find fascinating. Who made Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart? Who gave them their gifts? Who created music itself and the ability to perform it? All that is admirable and fascinating in human beings comes from their Creator.

It’s not God who’s boring; it’s us. Did we invent wit and humor and laughter? No, God did. We’ll never begin to exhaust God’s sense of humor and His love for adventure. The real question is this: ‘How could God not be bored with us?’”

Phil 3:20-21 For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to His glorious body, according to the working by which He is able even to subdue all things to Himself.

Joseph Bayly, A View From a Hearse:

“... before believers live in Heaven they will experience radical change. A baby in the womb is not ready for the earth until he goes through the radical change called birth. Until that change takes place, he cannot enjoy life in the new world. .... The believer will be changed. God has promised it. Let us not therefore pre-judge or question God about things we do not fully understand on this side of that promised change.”

Heb 12:22-24 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, <sup>23</sup> to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, <sup>24</sup> to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.

Jonathan Edwards, Heaven, A World of Love:

“No inhabitants of that blessed world will ever be grieved with the thought that they are slighted by those that they love. Or that their love is not fully and fondly returned ... There shall be no such things as flattery or insincerity in Heaven, but there, perfect sincerity will reign through all in all.

Everyone will be just what he seems to be and will really have all the love he seems to have. It will not be as it is in this earth where comparatively few things are what they seem to be and where professions are often made lightly and without meaning. But there, every expression of love shall come from the bottom of the heart, and all that is professed shall be really and truly felt.”
