

Truth: that which corresponds to its object or that which describes an _____ state of affairs

1. Jesus and the truth

- He is _____ of _____
- He _____
- He _____ the truth
- He called the Holy Spirit the _____
- He said _____ is truth
- He said the truth will _____

2. Man and the truth

- We should _____ in the truth
- We should _____ the truth
- We should be _____ of the truth

3. The wicked and the truth

- The wicked do not _____ the truth
- The ungodly _____ the truth & _____ the truth for a _____
- False spiritual teachers _____ the truth

4. Some truths about truth

- All truth claims are _____, _____, and _____ & therefore _____ their opposites
- Truth is _____, not _____

- Truth is _____
- Truth is _____ even though our _____ about truth change
- _____ cannot change a _____, no matter how _____ they are held
- Truth is _____ by the _____ of the one professing it
- Truths that appear to be relative are really _____

5. Contrary _____ are possible but contrary _____ are not possible.

- While most religions have some beliefs that are true, not all religious beliefs can be true because they are _____.
- A _____ statement is one that fails to meet its own standard.

6. We can _____ everything is true, but we cannot _____ everything true.

7. Ideas have _____

- False ideas about _____ lead to false ideas about _____
- If Christianity is true, then it's dangerous to your _____ not to be a Christian
- The same is true if _____ is true.

8. Can truth and tolerance co-exist?

- Tolerance (historically): recognition and respect for views, beliefs, practices, etc. _____ from one's own
- Tolerance (modern): acceptance of _____ belief as true

9. What is intellectual/religious pluralism?

- A belief that _____ beliefs about truth are both true
- Pluralists think all non-pluralist beliefs are _____. So pluralists are just as _____ & closed-minded as those who believe in absolute truth.
- Are pluralists ready to accept the religious beliefs of _____?
- The Bible commands Christians to _____ religious beliefs.