

Daniel Webster, "A Discourse,"
Plymouth, MA, Dec 22, 1820:

"Whatever makes men good Christians makes them
good citizens."

Supreme Court:

"Providence has given to our people
the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers. ... The Americans are the first people whom Heaven has favored with an opportunity of deliberating upon and choosing the forms of government under which they should live."

Samuel Adams, Essay in the Boston Gazette, Apr 16, 1781:

“Let each citizen remember at the moment he is offering his vote that he is ... executing one of the most solemn trusts in human society for which he is accountable to God and his country.”

Noah Webster, Letters to a Young Gentleman Commencing His Education to which is subjoined a Brief History of the United States:

“When a citizen gives his suffrage to a man of known immorality he abuses his trust; he sacrifices not only his own interest, but that of his neighbor, he betrays the interest of his country.”

We have reached a time when love for one's country is looked on with both reverence and revulsion by Christians.

"It might seem shocking to some people that a concept like 'nationalism' or 'patriotism' would be controversial in America. However, when a country is as politically polarized as ours, everything seems controversial. A nation that is splitting apart into hostile and warring factions is going to argue about even the most basic ideas." Ed Vitagliano, Exec VP, American Family Association/American Family Radio

“One earns the epithet ‘Christian nationalist’ simply by not embracing the ideology of the reigning power of our nation. One will be cast out of polite society for not toeing the party line. It’s the Christian version of Antifa, attacking lovers of liberty by fascistically denouncing and de-platforming them as fascists.”

“Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s” Mt 22:21

“love of country
becomes a demon
when it becomes a god.”

C.S. Lewis, The Four Loves

After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, <sup>10</sup> and crying out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” Rev 7:9-10

Dan 2:21 And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings;

Dan 5:21 the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.

Job 12:23-24 He makes nations great, and destroys them; He enlarges nations, and guides them. <sup>24</sup> He takes away the understanding of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.

27

Ps 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people He has chosen as His own inheritance.

Prov 14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a <sup>[h]</sup>reproach to any people.

Acts 17:26 And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings,

Rom 13:1,4,7 For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. ... <sup>4</sup> For he is God's minister to you for good. ... <sup>7</sup> Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Mt 7:12 Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Gal 6:10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

1 Tim 5:8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
