Dr. Ben Carson

For a time, the likelihood of Benjamin S. Carson, Sr., M.D. fulfilling his childhood dream of becoming a physician seemed unlikely. Growing up in a single parent home with dire poverty, poor grades, a horrible temper, and low self-esteem appeared to preclude the realization of that dream until his mother, with only a third-grade education, challenged her sons to strive for excellence. She observed successful people and encouraged her sons to emulate their behaviors, including reading. This led to behavior changes which had a profound effect on their education. In 1973, Ben Carson graduated from Yale University. He went on to receive his M.D. from the University of Michigan Medical School.

At the age of 33, Dr. Carson became the chief of pediatric neurosurgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital, making him the youngest major division director in the hospital's history. This would be among an extensive list of outstanding firsts for Dr. Carson. Dr. Carson's accomplishments have earned him a place in medical history. He performed the first and only successful separation of craniopagus (Siamese) twins joined at the back of the head in 1987. He also performed the first fully successful separation of type-2 vertical craniopagus twins in 1997 in South Africa. In his career, Dr. Carson became a professor of neurosurgery, oncology, plastic surgery, and pediatrics at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, and directed pediatric neurosurgery at the Johns Hopkins Children's Center for over 29 years. He became the inaugural recipient of a professorship dedicated in his name in May 2008. He is now the Emeritus Benjamin S. Carson, Sr., M.D. and Dr. Evelyn Spiro, R.N. Professor of Pediatric Neurosurgery, having retired on June 30, 2013.

Dr. Carson's prestigious awards include:

- the Spingarn Medal presented by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the highest honor of the NAACP.
- the Presidential Medal of Freedom awarded by President George W. Bush.
- recognition by U.S. News Media Group and Harvard's Center for Public Leadership as one of "America's Best Leaders".
- recognition by the Gallup Organization as one of the 10 Most Admired Men in the World.
- recognition as one of the 89 "Living Legends" of the Library of Congress.
- membership of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society and the Horatio Alger Society of Distinguished Americans.

SPEAKER BIOS

Dr. Carson also:

- sits on the board of directors of numerous organizations.
- is an Emeritus Fellow of the Yale Corporation, the governing body of Yale University.
- was appointed in 2004 by President George W. Bush to serve on the President's Council on Bioethics.
- is a highly regarded motivational speaker who has addressed various audiences from school systems and civic groups to corporations and the President's National Prayer Breakfast.
- has 70 honorary doctorate degrees and numerous national merit citations.
- has written ten books, four of which were co-authored with his wife, Candy, to whom he has been married for 46 years.
- is the feature of many children's books meant to inspire youth to "Think Big".

In 2016, Dr. Carson accepted the position of Secretary of Housing and Urban Development under the Trump administration. After completing his tenure as the 17th Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development in 2021, Dr. Carson founded the American Cornerstone Institute. This organization is focused on fighting for the principles that have guided him through life and that make this country great: faith, liberty, community and life.

Dr. Carson and his wife, Candy Carson, co-founded the Carson Scholars Fund, which recognizes young people of all backgrounds for exceptional academic and humanitarian accomplishments. The organization has awarded more than 11,000 scholarships and paid out more than $8.9 million in scholarships. The Carson Scholars Fund is currently operating in 50 states and the District of Columbia, and since its founding, has installed more than 270 Ben Carson Reading Rooms around the country.

Dr. and Mrs. Carson reside in Florida. They are the proud parents of three sons and three daughters-in-law, and blessed grandparents of eight grandchildren.

Kevin D. Freeman, CFA

Kevin Freeman is known as “the father of the LSV investing movement.” LSV refers to investing in Liberty, Security, and Values and is the counter to hypocritical ESG (which has been hijacked to fuel corporate greed, inequality, and globalist tyranny). He is also co-founder of the National Security Investment Consultant Institute (NSIC) and Partner, EWR-Media Holdings, LLC. He is the Host of Economic War Room with Kevin Freeman (BlazeTV), a NY Times bestselling author, and considered one of the world’s leading experts on the issues of Economic Warfare. He holds the CFA designation, and his research has been presented in critical DoD studies. He has briefed the FBI, DIA, ONA, SEC, Naval War College, HASC, Naval Postgraduate School, DARPA, IARPA, and a host of government agencies tasked with protecting America as well as members of both the House and Senate and multiple Presidential candidates.

Kevin is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and serves as Speaker of the Cherokee Community of North Texas; a Senior Fellow at the Center for Security Policy; former Contributing Editor to The Counter Terrorist magazine; Trustee at Oklahoma Wesleyan University; and a member of the Advisory Board of First Liberty Institute.

His books include Secret Weapon: How Economic Terrorism took Down the U.S. Stock Market and Why It Could Happen Again (NY Times Bestseller), Game Plan: How to Protect Yourself from the Coming Cyber-Economic Attack (Amazon bestseller), According to Plan: The Elite’s Secret Plan to Sabotage America (Amazon bestseller), Pirate Money: Discovering the Founders’ Hidden Plan for Economic Justice and Defeating the Great Reset (Amazon bestseller).

Alex Newman

Alex Newman is an award-winning international journalist, educator, author, speaker, investor, and consultant who seeks to glorify God in everything he does.

In addition to serving as president of Liberty Sentinel Media, Inc, he has written for a wide array of publications in the United States and abroad. He currently serves as a contributor to the Epoch Times, a correspondent for the Law Enforcement Intelligence Brief, foreign correspondent and senior editor for The New American magazine, a writer for WND (World Net Daily), an education writer for FreedomProject Media, a columnist for the Illinois Family Institute, and much more.

He has also written for numerous newspapers and magazines such as the Gainesville Sun, Liberty magazine, The Diplomat magazine, Crisis magazine, George magazine, Swiss News magazine, Charisma News, Salvo magazine, the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, Sunshine State News, Campus Reform, Alachua County Today, and many more. He has appeared on Fox, CNN, Newsmax, OAN, NTD, Real America's Voice, and many other networks.

Over his career as a journalist, Alex has interviewed current and former heads of state, members of Congress, royalty, and countless other fascinating people. His work, which has received numerous awards, has been repeatedly highlighted by Drudge, Breitbart, Fox News, CNN, the Washington Post, and many other outlets. His writing has been published in major newspapers across America, and his PR work has appeared in the New York Times, the Washington Post, Reuters, the Associated Press, and more.

In addition, Alex has authored and co-authored several books. One of his major works was an exposé of government schools with internationally renowned Dr. Samuel Blumenfeld called Crimes of the Educators published by WND Books. It was endorsed by conservative leaders ranging from Phyllis Schlafly to Ron Paul.

Alex also co-wrote an exposé of Obama with some of America's leading investigative journalists including Cliff Kincaid, Trevor Loudon, Joel Gilbert, and others. More recently, Alex wrote a book exposing the Deep State. And before that, he co-wrote a book exposing the World Federalist movement.

Alex has appeared on hundreds of TV shows including leading shows on Fox, Newsmax, TBN, One America News, the Dove Network, the Christian Television Network, the SonLife Broadcasting Network, and top news channels from Russia and Iran to Turkey and beyond. He has also been featured in numerous documentaries.

Across multiple platforms and with many tens of millions of views on his videos so far, Alex also hosts and co-hosts a number of shows. Every weekday from 4:30–5:00 PM Eastern, Alex hosts The Sentinel Report on the Frank Speech network which reaches many millions worldwide. Separately, he hosts Behind The Deep State and Conversations That Matter. Finally, Alex hosts the weekly show Liberty Hour on the AMP network.

Alex is on the Leadership Council of Freedom Force International, one of the premier liberty organizations in the world. He also serves as a director for the organization Bear Witness Central, which works to protect and preserve the U.S. Constitution by educating the public in partnership with other conservative organizations. Alex is a Leadership Fellow at the James Madison Institute, Florida's premier free-market think tank. And he serves on advisory boards of Citizens for Free Speech, the Illinois Family Institute, and numerous other groups. Alex also serves on the boards of organizations ranging from schools and companies to publications.

In 2019, Alex and a coalition of amazing high-profile Christian leaders formed "Public School Exit," the nation's premier ministry working to rescue American children from the horrors of government "education." The organization exists to facilitate a massive exodus from public schools by raising awareness and knocking down barriers for parents, pastors, and children.

In addition, Alex serves on several advisory boards for education-focused organizations, including U.S. Parents Involved in Education (USPIE), the Nehemiah Institute, and the Samuel L. Blumenfeld Foundation for Literacy. Alex is also member of the American Enterprise Institute's Conservative Education Reform Network alongside other leading conservative voices in the education policy field.

In adult education, Alex serves as director of G. Edward Griffin's Red Pill University, connecting people around the world with leaders in the liberty movement. He has been an organizer and speaker at every Red Pill Expo, speaking alongside some of America's most brilliant and principled heroes in politics, business, and health.

For over a decade, Alex taught advanced economics to some of America's brightest high-school seniors through FreedomProject Academy, an accredited K-12 Christian school offering a classical education to future leaders worldwide where he now serves on the board. Alex also has an education blog called The Newman Report for Freedom Media, an affiliate of the school.

SPEAKER BIOS

Before that, Alex was the top-performing field representative for the Leadership Institute, the nation's leading conservative grassroots training organization. There, he worked organizing student groups and publications while recruiting young conservatives into the movement and getting them trained for victory.

As a consultant, Alex has worked on a wide array of successful campaigns, ranging from political campaigns for Congress to marketing campaigns for non-profit groups and international businesses. He also spent time working in marketing and branding as Creative Director, Europe, for a leading international branding firm based in Miami.

Alex speaks regularly at conferences on topics ranging from education and economics to climate and international affairs. He also teaches regularly in evangelical churches on a wide array of subjects. He has shared the stage with people like Donald Trump, Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis, Gen. Mike Flynn, Charlie Kirk, Kirk Cameron, Phyllis Schlafly, Ben Carson, Robert Kiyosaki, numerous patriotic members of the U.S. Congress, multiple members of Trump's cabinet, and countless other American heroes. In addition, he advises political, non-profit, and business leaders across the United States and beyond.

Alex has a B.S. degree in journalism from the University of Florida with an emphasis on economics and international relations, as well as an A.A. degree in foreign languages from Miami-Dade College. He also studied international relations and geopolitics at the Institute Français des Alpes in France.

Alex has lived, studied, and worked in eight countries (US, Mexico, Brazil, Switzerland, France, South Africa, Spain, Sweden) on four continents. He speaks multiple languages fluently and more at varying degrees of proficiency.

Being educated at some of the most elite international schools on the planet has given him access to extraordinary movers and shakers worldwide, as well as a unique perspective on global affairs. To this day, Alex regularly travels the world for research, speaking, interviews, conferences, and more. He has filed stories for various publications from dozens of countries across Africa, South America, Asia, the Middle East, and more.

Alex's work has been cited by governments and major media outlets around the world. He is a frequent guest on local, regional, national and international radio, having done thousands of radio and TV interviews over the last decade. That includes appearances on many of America's top national programs such as the Michael Savage show, the Tomi Lahren show, the Steve Malzberg show on Newsmax, the Janet Mefford Show, Coast to Coast, Fox News radio, The Blaze radio, Caravan to Midnight, Understanding the Times with Jan Markell, the Phyllis Schlafly show, the Alex Jones Show, and many more.

Alex is a weekly contributor to One America News and weekly co-host of the nationally syndicated Inside the News program with Paul Jensen, Utah's most popular political talk radio show. He was a weekly guest on nationally syndicated shows such as the Phyllis Schlafly's Eagles program and the Larry Friis Show. He is also a frequent speaker on international TV programs worldwide, including a weekly appearance on Poland's Christian IPP TV that went on for years. Alex is a sought-after speaker for churches and conferences across America and around the world.

All together, Alex reaches many millions each year with the message of faith, family and freedom.

Most importantly, Alex is married to the love of his life and they have five children, so far. Along with his family, he currently splits his time between various places, including Europe and the United States.

Lt. Gen Steven Kwast (ret USAF)

Chief Executive Officer of Skycorp Incorporated, a company pioneering future sustainable space construction and economic development. Born in California, he was raised in a remote African tribe, moved back to the US, and graduated from the United States Air Force Academy in 1986 with a degree in Astronautical Engineering. His military career spanned every major combat operation, from a young Lieutenant Fighter Pilot in Desert Storm, culminating as the Commanding Air Force General at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan. He subsequently rose to the highest levels of command in the United States Air Force. He has a Master's degree from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government in Public Policy and has been a University President and the President of the number one startup company in America. He is married to the former Joni McDonough and they have two children.

Lt. Gen. Steven L. Kwast is the former Commander, Air Education and Training Command, Joint Base San Antonio-Randolph, Texas. He is responsible for the recruiting, training and education of Air Force personnel. His command includes Air Force Recruiting Service, two numbered air forces and Air University. The command operates more than 1,400 trainer, fighter and mobility aircraft, 23 wings, 10 bases and five geographically separated groups. It trains more than 293,000 students per year with approximately 60,000 active-duty, Reserve, Guard, civilian and contractor personnel.

General Kwast was commissioned upon graduation from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1986. After completing a master's degree in public policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government, he was assigned to undergraduate pilot training where he earned his pilot wings in June 1989. General Kwast has served as military aide to the vice president and completed a National Defense Fellowship with the Institute for the Study of Conflict, Ideology and Policy at Boston University, Massachusetts.

The general has commanded at the squadron, group and wing levels, including the 47th Operations Group at Laughlin Air Force Base, Texas, and the 4th Fighter Wing at Seymour Johnson AFB, North Carolina. He also served as the deputy director for Colonel Matters, Air Force Senior Leader Management Office, Washington, D.C., and as the commander, 455th Air Expeditionary Wing, Bagram Airfield, Afghanistan. General Kwast was the deputy director for Politico-Military Affairs for Europe, NATO and Russia, Strategic Plans and Policy Directorate, Joint Staff, the Pentagon, Arlington, Va. Prior to his current

The Economic War of the Heart

There are three economic wars underway that Americans are combating every day:

1. The foreign economic war, which is being waged against us by China and the axis of evil.
2. The domestic economic war, which is funny because it's really about globalists and the elitists and the World Economic Forum, and how they want to subjugate you. But they are using domestic politicians to wage it.
3. The economic war of the heart, is the hardest, but it is by far the most important. It'll be the focus of this Economic Battle Plan™ and is literally the hope of America. Our future hinges on winning this war. The story of the Boy King from over 2,600 years ago uncovers the secret to victory.

Your Mission: To acknowledge in your heart that money is not the goal. It's not true treasure. Money is a tool to be used.

- Get your money moving. Give it, spend it, invest it in a way that will rebuild liberty, rebuild justice, and bring back prosperity to our nation.
- Win the economic war of the heart!

“Our founders were willing to sacrifice their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor for liberty. They had the right attitude about money – Money is not that important if you don't have liberty. Having a right attitude about money is the first and most important step in winning the economic war.” —Kevin Freeman, CFA

Ep. 6-216 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This is an exclusive teaching series from Kevin Freeman. Kevin Freeman is considered one of the world's leading experts on the issues of Economic and Financial Terrorism. He has consulted for and briefed members of both the U.S. House and Senate, present and past CIA, DIA, FBI, SEC, Homeland Security, the Justice Department as well as local and state law enforcement. His research has been presented in critical DoD studies on Economic Warfare, Iran, and Weapons of Mass Destruction presented to the Secretary of Defense and the Under Secretary of Defense, Intelligence. He has traveled extensively with research trips to Russia and China and throughout Europe and the Americas. He is also a Senior Fellow at the Center for Security Policy. Kevin is a New York Times Best Selling Author.

1. Our Foreign Economic War Against China.

The foreign economic war is obvious. But it has not always been so obvious.

“When I was working at the Pentagon in 2008 through 2010 as a consultant, they told me that China was our friend and banker. Many also claimed that China was more Christian and more capitalist than we were in the U.S. I knew better.” —Kevin Freeman

Be aware, Chinese Intelligence has infiltrated the US! While many are now being exposed, we have only begun to understand the real threat.

- » Senator Dianne Feinstein had a driver who was a Chinese spy.
- » Hunter Biden’s secretary, who urged his father, Joe Biden, to run for president, is considered to have ties to the Chinese Communist Party.
- » Congressman Eric Swalwell’s relationship with Fang Fang, a suspected Chinese operative.
- » These are not minor details; these are huge violations by our government leaders.

CASE STUDY: DC has been infiltrated with agents not representing America.

Speaking at the Heritage Foundation, Kevin gave a presentation on China’s Unrestricted Warfare. Afterward, a woman walked up to Kevin and handed him her card that said, China Studies professor at a major University. Kevin looked at her and said, “You’re PLA (China’s People’s Liberation Army) aren’t you?” She smiled back and nodded “Yes.”

When Kevin asked her if she was concerned, he would expose her. She shook her head and said, “no.” He asked, “Why not?” She said, “we own half of DC.”

WARNING: China’s intrusion is not limited to politics.

We have corporate espionage, financial market manipulation, including accessing our capital to pay for China’s weapon’s development.

They’ve gotten special favors from our government leaders; they’ve stolen intellectual property; and they’ve influenced our border policy through cartels and their drugs, like fentanyl.

China has benefited from the foreign economic war, and their economy has been growing exponentially since 1999.

- » In 1999 China’s economy was roughly 1/10th the size of America’s.
- » In just over 20 years, China’s economy has grown from about the size of Italy’s to the second largest in the world.
- » Some say China’s economy is rivaling the American economy.

COVID, another Chinese weapon in the economic war? No Matter how you look at it, COVID was the world’s greatest economic weapon.

“In 2019, China unleashed on the world the greatest economic weapon in history - COVID. If it wasn’t designed as a bioweapon, it certainly functioned as one.” –Kevin Freeman

There’s a new Senate report that does suggest COVID may have leaked from a lab. Regardless of where it came from, it caused incalculable damage to our health, and it divided the U.S.

There are other strategic actions causing the splintering of America.

» Remember the Black Lives Matter?

Riots in the middle of the pandemic? There are reports that China funded a lot of the BLM anarchy.

Economic Battle Plan

- » Remember the economic shutdown?
It caused massive government debt and inflation. Was it according to plan?

It ties in with one of China's major targets. The American dollar hegemony (dominance).

China wants the American dollar, which is the prominent currency of the world, to end.

The goal is to damage, even destroy, American economic power and replace the dollar with their central bank digital currency (CBDC) known as the digital yuan.

Sadly, Americans are making it easy for China to replace the dollar with our US debt.

Our US debt is a threat to our Security.

Look at the cost of interest alone on our US debt:

We have $31 trillion in debt right now. In 2008 our debt was $10 trillion. Last year, the total interest we paid on our debt was "just" 378 billion. That was at a 1.3 percent interest rate.

- » With interest rates are now approaching 5 percent:
 - $31 trillion dollars in debt suggests approximately $1.5 trillion dollars that we pay in interest alone!
- » What if interest rates went to 10 percent?
 - We would pay $3 trillion dollars in interest only.

AT $3 TRILLION DOLLARS IN INTEREST, THAT'S APPROACHING ALL THE TAX RECEIPTS THE U.S. TAKES IN!

WARNING: We have other foreign enemies as well, and as America is weakened, they become bolder and are setting up new alliances.

2. Our Devious Domestic Enemies – Technocracy, WEF, ESG and More!

Our domestic enemy is equally insidious. They want to replace American exceptionalism and individual liberty with a globalist technocracy.

Technocracy - the control of a society by an elite of technical experts; is undemocratic and disregards the will of the people.

This has been the dream of the elites for decades. We were warned about it in the novels, “1984” and “Brave New World.”

President Eisenhower fervently warned Americans about the dangers of the rising scientific, technological elite. This is from his 1961 farewell address:

“Today, the solitary inventor, tinkerer in his shop has been overshadowed by task forces of scientists and laboratories and testing fields. Partly because of the huge cost involved, a government contract becomes virtually a substitute for intellectual curiosity. While continuing to respect diversity and scientific research, we must also be alert to the equal and opposite danger that public policy could itself become the captive of a scientific, technological elite.” —President Dwight Eisenhower

ATTENTION: Those words were uttered over 60 years ago, eerily foreshadowing the rise of Google, Facebook, Amazon, and Fauci. This is domestic economic warfare!

Also, look at The World Economic Forum’s goal of reshaping global power and control. Their agenda is also being implemented from those within the US.

A Cancel Culture is Being Implemented to Control You!

Economic War Room® has extensively documented the risks of de-banking, canceling, losing your job, or being shunned from society if you disagree on things such as health policy, gender and sexuality.

- » It can take the form of ESG investing.
- » It can break down national barriers.
- » It could also end the use of fossil fuels and control what you’re allowed to own and even what you’re allowed to eat!

Economic Battle Plan

The worst part is that you're expected to fund all of this – first with your taxes, but also your investments, your spending, and your charitable donations.

None of the above is what people want!

Like the foreign threat, the ultimate goal is money control.

“Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC), Biden bucks, a digital dollar. Sometimes the foreign threats work together with the domestic threat. Sometimes they're at odds, but they're always against you. Why? Because you're the only one who can defeat them.” —Kevin Freeman

AN IMPORTANT NOTE WE MUST UNDERSTAND TO WIN THE ECONOMIC WAR AHEAD.

Where's your heart? How do you view money in your life?

It's about having the right attitude about money.

Two conflicts with money are playing out between the right and the left for the War of the Heart.

- » The far left understands that if you get power, you get money.
- » Those of us on the right seem to want to get money and hope that we can buy power after we get it.

Key Learning: By the time we get money, we learn we don't own it. It owns us and we become afraid of losing it and start planning for the future on how to keep it.

We have seen this happen repeatedly. Billionaires and millionaires work their whole life to make as much money as they can.

- » They think, “As soon as I get money, I’ll do good with it.”
- » Once they get it, suddenly they start planning on how to keep from losing it.
- » Where do we put it? How can we use it so my kids are taken care of and my grandkids are taken care of? (That’s a good thing. The Bible says that the wealth of the godly is laid up for their children and grandchildren. But not if money becomes an obsession.)

The problem is we begin to put our trust in uncertain riches.

Jesus warned us in Matthew 6:19, “Don’t lay up for yourselves treasures here on earth, where moth and where rust destroy, and thieves break in and steal.”

In modern terms we could say, “Where hackers can break in and hack, or inflation can erode, or it can be put in a bad venture.” Don’t do that! Instead, store for yourselves treasure in heaven where moth and rust cannot destroy, and thieves cannot break in and steal.

The most important step in winning the economic war is having the right attitude about money.

The problem isn’t having money. The problem is money having you. That’s what makes economic warfare effective.

“Our founders were willing to sacrifice their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor for liberty. They had the right attitude about money – Money is not that important if you don’t have liberty. Having a right attitude about money is the first and most important step in winning the economic war.” —Kevin Freeman

3. The Economic War of the Heart. This is the Third, and Most Important War America is Facing.

Understand, Money is not the end all and be all.

In Luke 16:11, Jesus said, "If you aren't faithful with your unrighteous mammon, who will ever trust you with true riches?"

Stop and think about that. This means that money is NOT true riches. And God requires us to be faithful with our money. What does that mean?

Next, look at Luke 16:10, Jesus first said, "If you're faithful in the small things, I'll set you over greater things." Then he said, "If you're not faithful with your unrighteous money, no one is ever going to trust you with true riches."

Key Learning: Money should be a small thing.

Money is not evil; it's a tool.

Money is not evil, but it should be a small thing. 1 Timothy 6:10 is misquoted all the time. The actual verse says, "For the love of money is the root of all sorts of evil." This verse tells two things:

- » It's the love of money that is the problem, not money itself.
- » Money is not the root of every evil. There is evil that happens in this world that has nothing to do with money. But money is the root of all sorts of evils.

Treat money as a tool. If you have a rake, a shovel, or a pipe wrench; they're tools. You don't love them.

The point is this: Things or tools can be useful, and money is useful. It's not just dirty green pieces of paper. But it can get in the way of winning the economic war.

Lessons in History: Secrets from the Boy King and Schumpeterian Economics.

The Bible tells about a Boy King named Josiah. He lived about 2,600 years ago. His story provides the secret to winning the economic war.

It begins in 2 Chronicles 34:1: “Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem.”

Josiah’s dad was King Amon who did evil in the sight of the Lord, so his servants killed him. Josiah’s grandfather was Manasseh, who also did evil in the sight of the Lord, according to the abomination of the nations. Manasseh did eventually repent, but his son was already lost by that point.

Josiah’s great grandfather was Hezekiah who was a great king. 2 Chronicles 29 tells us that “Hezekiah did what was right in the sight of the Lord, according to that which his father, David had done.”

- » Hezekiah cleaned up the temple.
- » Hezekiah followed God.
- » God prospered King Hezekiah greatly.
- » He made mistakes but repented and God forgave him.

Verse 32:27 shares that Hezekiah had very great riches and honor and he made for himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields and all kinds of desirable items. (Note: This is the same Hezekiah in chapter 31 who ordered the tithes to be laid up into heaps.)

Hezekiah accumulated wealth and heaped it up in the temple, and that’s where things went off track. Look at 2 Chronicles 31:10-12:

“As Azariah, the chief priest from the House of Zadok, answered him and said, ‘Since the people began to bring the offerings into the House of the Lord, we’ve had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the Lord has blessed His people; and what is left is this great abundance’. Now, Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the House of the Lord, and they prepared them. Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things.”

Economic Battle Plan

The trap of wealth.

Do you see it? It is the act of storing up wealth in the temple. Believe it or not, that was the trap that ensnared Hezekiah's son, Manasseh, and grandson, Amon.

Storing Up Wealth also demonstrates Schumpeterian Economics.

Schumpeterian Economics: Joseph Alois Schumpeter was a German economist who lived from 1883 to 1950. He taught in Europe and eventually at Harvard.

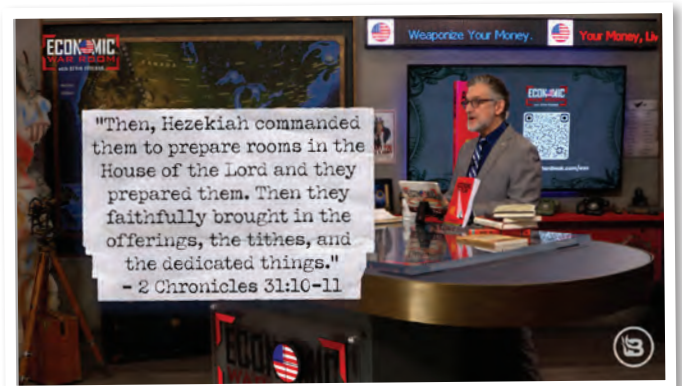

Beware of Economic Creative Destruction.

Schumpeter basically taught the concept of economic creative destruction. He predicted the rise of socialism through corporatism and that it would happen to liberal capitalism and the destruction of entrepreneurs. He talked about economic cycles, about entrepreneurs and the next generation, then the next generation.

Here's how the cycle works:

- » The entrepreneur works hard, makes a lot of money, knows the value of making money, but realizes it's not the end in itself. He wants to do good things with it.
- » The second generation sees the entrepreneur father and mother having worked so hard to build up their wealth, so they still have a respect for it. But they also have a dependence on money rather than their own hard work and ingenuity. The kids get it, but the grandkids don't get it at all.
- » The third generation. Because they have money, they don't need God and they don't need hard work. They're privileged and "know" that they're smarter than everybody else. They think it's all about them.

That's exactly what happened with Hezekiah's family. They had money. Like the rich fool Jesus spoke about in Luke 12, they depended on their wealth. The rich fool was going to tear down his storehouses and build bigger ones.

4. The Overwhelming Sin of America.

We have prospered beyond imagination. We have been blessed with Liberty but it is at risk.

- » The founders were willing to sacrifice anything for liberty.
- » The greatest generation came out of the Depression and fought in World War II, giving up everything to defend liberty.

Today, Americans are so dependent on money, we can be led by the nose and controlled.

- » We're more worried that the value of our 401K might fall if we upset the Chinese than we are about losing our Liberty.
- » We're told by our masters that we can be taken off social media or we might lose our bank account. So we cower in fear.
- » We've become so dependent on our wealth that we've forgotten the meaning of true Liberty.

That's why we call this the Economic War of the Heart. This is where we are in America, and this is the overwhelming sin of our nation.

ATTENTION: We have made money the big thing so we are losing the true riches.

Where is Your Treasure?

Jesus told us that "Where your treasure is there your heart will be also." That's profound.

Here's the problem: Is your treasure in your bank account, the stock market, your 401K?

IMPORTANT: "This is why economic warfare is so effective, because where our treasure is, that's where our heart is. So, anything that attacks our treasure can attack our heart." —Kevin Freeman

5. We CAN Restore America – The Secret from King Josiah.

The Boy King discovered a secret that can work today to restore America. Josiah was just eight years old when he became king.

He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, according to the Bible. At 16, in his eighth year of his reign, Josiah began to seek God.

He tore down false worship. That was important and powerful. In his 18th year of his reign, Josiah decided to restore the true worship of God and rebuild the temple.

The temple basically had become a vault for the kingdom's wealth. It was where Josiah's daddy, granddaddy, and great granddaddy had stored up the money. They treated it like a bank, which meant they didn't trust God, they trusted the money in the temple instead.

Read 2 Chronicles 34:9. It says, "When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites who kept the door..."

Note: The money was brought into the temple since the time of Hezekiah, the great grandfather of Josiah. The Levites, who were supposed to be priests had become bankers.

Verse 10 continues, "They put it into the hand of the foreman who had the oversight of the House of the Lord, and they gave it to the workman who worked in the House of the Lord to repair and restore the house. They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams. And the men did work faithfully."

Note: What did they put into the hand of the foreman? The money that had been brought into the temple. In other words, they got the money out of the "bank" and got it moving into the economy. This is so important.

Verse 14 gives us the key phrase: "Now, when they brought out the money that had been brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the Lord given by Moses."

Note: The money that had been brought into the House of the Lord was placed there by Hezekiah. It was essentially a trust fund that his son and his grandson depended on, and it screwed them up. But when they put the money to work, they actually uncovered true riches – the Word of God.

Verse 17 says, “And they gathered the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, and they delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workman.” Note: This is key, they delivered it to the workman!

Let’s continue in verses 18-19, “Then Shaphan the scribe, told the king saying, ‘Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.’ And Shaphan read it before the king. Thus, it happened, when the King heard the words of the law, that he tore his clothes.”

At that moment, Josiah won the economic war of the heart! Josiah realized it wasn’t about money. It was money covering up the true riches. True riches are never money. It’s the Word of God that he found.

And God responded in verses 26-28, “Thus says the Lord God of Israel: ‘Concerning the words which you have heard because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,’ says the Lord. “Surely, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.”

ATTENTION: This is the King’s secret. The Boy King’s secret. He got the money out of the way, and he found true riches. It’s exactly what Jesus talked about. He said, “If you’re not faithful with your unrighteous mammon, you will not be trusted with true riches.”

“Josiah was faithful. He got the money moving, and when he did so, he uncovered the Word of God that led to repentance and the salvation of his nation.” —Kevin Freeman

We say it all the time. Weaponize your money. Your giving, your spending, investing. Don’t just store it up as if it has value in itself. Money is only valuable if you use it. Josiah put the money into the hands of the workmen for a godly purpose. We saw that in verse 17.

“In economics, there is an essential concept called the Velocity of Money. It refers to how fast money moves through an economy. It also explains that an economy dies if money is not moving. If you have no velocity, if it’s just stagnant, the economy collapses.” —Kevin Freeman

6. Biblical Warnings

One warning: Failing to Invest. Put your talents to work.

Jesus told the Parable of the Talents in Luke 19. He said three servants were given money (in those days, Talent was a measure of money, not the ability to sing, dance, or play an instrument). Two put money to work and were rewarded. The third buried the money and was punished for being wicked and lazy. His sin was twofold:

- » Trusting in uncertain riches instead of trying to please God.
- » Fearfully storing up treasure rather than getting it moving.

A second warning: Failing to pay when you spend. It's a sin to not pay laborers.

That's explained in James 5 where he's writing to Christians.

James says, "Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire because you have heaped up treasure in the last days".

Notice the language and how it ties into the idea of "Don't store up treasure here on earth where moth and rust destroy."

He goes on and says, "Indeed, the wages of laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord. You have lived on earth in pleasure and luxury; you have fattened your hearts as in a day of slaughter."

Biblical truths straight from Scripture constantly explain the economic war of the heart. That's what was going on in James. That's what was going on in Josiah's time. That's what Jesus warned us about. Money is not the answer. But having a right heart about money may well be the answer. That's why we call it the economic war of the heart.

7. If we're going to win this war of the heart, we must do three things:

» Number one, we've got to stop seeing money as treasure.

It's a tool. And in an economic war, it's a weapon. We're trying to get you to think about money in a brand-new way. (Well, it's not a new way. It's really the way God intended at the beginning.)

- So, don't think of money necessarily as something you just keep and heap in your bank account, drawing on it when you need it. Money is not your source of supply or protection.
- Think about money in a new way. We talk about the Digital Texan, that is Article One, Section 10 money from the Constitution. Think of it as transactional gold and silver. That is a means of using gold and silver and making it functional and useful in an economy. (If you don't know what I'm talking about, go back and watch our episode on the Digital Texan. It is a powerful alternative that we're giving to a monetary system that's grown corrupted.)

» Number two, get your money moving. Give it. Spend it. Invest it.

We've talked about 10 different solutions in the Economic War Room. These are ways that we can get your money moving and things that will rebuild liberty, that will rebuild justice, that will bring back prosperity to our nation.

» Number three, get help. Get an NSIC advisor, National Security Investment Consultant advisor.

- If we're going to win the economic war, we're going to need good counsel and good advisors. That's why we're training financial planners, stockbrokers, CPAs, insurance agents at Liberty University Online. You can learn more at www.nsic.org.
- We are equipping financial advisors to help you win the economic war of the heart, and then the economic domestic war, and then the foreign war. This is your opportunity to make a huge difference.
- If you have a financial advisor, encourage them to become part of the NSIC, or if it is time to find a new advisor let us know and we will try to find an advisor in your area.

Economic Battle Plan

- Working together, you will learn how to weaponize your giving, your spending, and your investing to save America and protect your family.

The Boy King uncovered this secret 2,600 years ago. Now, it's up to us to use it to save America. We talk about the small ships. You, as an individual, can make a huge difference if we all work together like the small ships of Dunkirk. This is our opportunity.

Why Should You Care?

- » We are engaged in a daunting foreign war, which is against China and the axis of evil.
- » We are also engaged in a menacing domestic war. We talk about the domestic war, which is funny because it's really about globalists and the elitists and the World Economic Forum, and they want to subjugate you.
- » We are also engaged in the haunting economic war of the heart. It is the hardest to win, but it is the most important, and is literally the hope of the US. Our American future hinges on winning this war as does your family. The biblical story of the Boy King over 2,600 years ago uncovers the secret to victory.
- » There is good news, we CAN Restore America if we learn the secret from King Josiah.
- » If we're going to win this war of the heart, we must take action.

Your Action Steps:

1. To acknowledge in your heart that money is not the goal. It's not true treasure. Money is a tool to be used. Get your money moving. Give it, spend it, invest it in a way that will rebuild liberty.
2. Read and meditate on 2 Chronicles chapters 29-34. Ask God to open your eyes to what He wants for our nation, for your family, and for you personally.
3. Repent for our nation, asking God to forgive us and turn America back to obedience and trust in Him as did our founding fathers.
4. Ask God to heal our land. "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14 NKJV)
5. Forward this to all your friends and loved ones and get them to take action.
6. Join us weekly in the Economic War Room®. We are building new solutions with thought leaders that come through our doors every week.
7. Listen to and study Economic War Room® (<https://www.economicwarroom.com>) resources to help you understand the geopolitical landscape and threats against your money, your livelihood, and your way of life to better prepare you to enter the battle.
8. If you have a financial advisor, make sure they have your values and interests at heart. Make sure they really understand what ESG investments mean for our future. Suggest that they become part of the NSIC institute and nominate them to participate in our online certification (see below).

ATTENTION: Again, if you have not contacted your financial advisor, it is time to make it happen! If you don't have an advisor, it's time to consider getting one.

IMPORTANT: If you have a financial advisor make sure they are aligning your investments with your values and that they understand the economic war being waged against you. (See more on Weaponizing your money below)

9. Financial Advisors sign up for the online NSIC class at Liberty University. If you have a financial advisor make sure they see this link:

10. It is time to weaponize your money, see below as it relates to finding an NSIC advisor. We are in an economic war, as you seek ways to Weaponize you Money in your Investments, Spending, and Giving, consider an NSIC trained financial advisor.

Make sure your financial advisor has your values and interest at heart. Make certain they really understand what ESG investments mean for our future. Suggest that they become part of the NSIC institute and nominate them to participate in our online certification at EconomicWarRoom.com/advisor.

Financial Advisors go www.NSIC.org. Be sure to sign up for more information at <https://www.nsic.org/nominate.html>.

If you do not have a financial advisor, now is a good time to get one. We will soon publish of NSIC advisors who have participated in the training and elected to become part of the NSIC Institute.

11. Weaponize your money toward principles that support Liberty, Security, and Values (LSV). You control your giving, spending, and investing. Nominate your financial advisor to attend our next class at Liberty University this fall.
- Investing. We suggest you get a like-minded financial advisor. We've done surveys and a clear majority of investors want an advisor who matches with their political and cultural beliefs. Unfortunately, Wall Street is pushing for you to just take what they offer in order to force a leftist agenda on you.
 - o "If your advisor isn't willing to match your investments with your values, send them to us for training and education. If they won't do that, I can promise you that there are lots of other advisors looking for new clients." –Kevin Freeman
 - o If you are following Economic War Room®, you will be on the leading edge regarding global threats, geopolitical analysis, and how you can weaponize your money to strengthen America. Your money, livelihood, and way of life are at risk and these tools are designed to mobilize America to protect our economic liberty.

In the Economic War Room®, we encourage Americans to be the “small ships that make the difference.” You cannot solely rely on the government or the president to solve America’s problems. You have to make a difference. It is up to you to help take our country back and create a voice for economic liberty. [The small ships are based on Churchill’s Operation Dynamo that rescued the British Expeditionary Forces in the Miracle of Dunkirk.]

The History of American Money

Since the onset of human civilization, trade has been a necessary human interaction. Initially, bartering was a regular practice. However, once civilizations grew, the need for a medium of exchange (money) became obvious. Money has existed in various forms over the centuries, eventually standardized as gold and silver. This was true around the world, including in the American colonies.

In some societies, it became common practice to produce paper receipts for real money serving as IOUs to be exchanged for gold and silver. This is where the concept of bills and notes similar to what we use in America today first emerged.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Inflation, The Dollar, and Pirate Money
- » Money & America's Founders
- » Money In The Civil War Era
- » The 20th Century – Federal Reserve
- » Gold and Silver
- » CBDC & The Founders' Solution

YOUR MISSION: Understand the history of American Money and why it is essential that we use the Founders' hidden treasure to ensure financial security for the American people.

ATTENTION: The financial well-being of the average American is under attack but the founders foresaw such an event and provided a solution hidden in the Constitution.

1. Inflation, The Dollar, And Pirate Money

It is not hard for many of us to look back and remember a time when a dollar bill in our wallet could afford much more than today. Inflation has been eating at the buying power of the American people, so much so that the purchasing power of dollar bills has declined more than 87% since 1971, according to official government inflation measures.

While the value of our money is being stripped by poor monetary policy and government spending practices, the dollar is also under international attack. China has encouraged multiple nations to begin transacting in the yuan instead of the U.S. dollar, which has begun the process of detaching the U.S. dollar from oil. For decades the petrodollar arrangement has maintained some form of commodity backing for the dollar, but now, the paper money is under threat.

Thankfully, our founders saw the threat of paper money, and they left us with a way out: Pirate Money.

Kevin Freeman has written a new book, Pirate Money: Discovering the Hidden Plan for Economic Justice and Defeating the Great Reset. This book will function as a treasure map, guiding our nation to the Founders' hidden treasure that can save America.

“The book is about Money, the Wealth Gap, the Great Reset, Central Bank Digital Currency, and Chinese Efforts to Displace the American Dollar. More importantly, though, it’s about implementing a solution to provide economic justice for real people facing severe challenges that are all headed straight at us. I believe that the solution has a pirate element in it. And when you’re finished reading the book, I think you’ll agree. We’re about to go on a ‘National-Treasure’-style hunt, searching through clues left by our founders of this great republic. They lived in a world of pirates to learn their hidden secret, we’ll have to change our thinking.” –Kevin Freeman

2. Money & The Founders

This treasure hunt begins in the Colonial era. The Colonies that would become the United States of America were still under British rule, and they neighbored colonies ruled by France and Spain.

Spain was known for its immense wealth, especially after collecting most of the gold in Central and South America. Because of their wealth, the Spanish were able to mint the most commonly exchanged currency of the time, the Spanish milled dollar. Spain’s currency was produced in both silver and gold coins. The Silver dollar was often cut into 8 small wedges which became known as Pieces of Eight, or what we might call, “pirate money.”

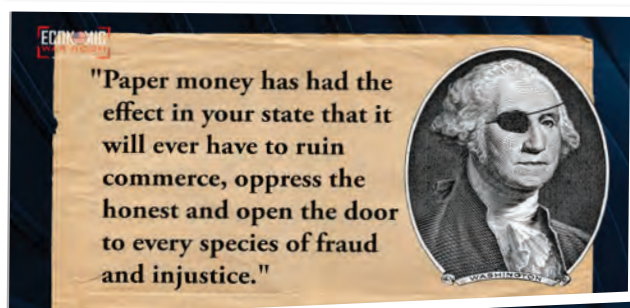

During the Revolutionary War, the Continental Congress printed Continentals (paper money) with a promise to repay in gold or silver, which ended in economic disaster.

After the war and the ratification of the Articles of Confederation, paper money nearly bankrupted our new nation.

- » In those days, Congress printed money. So did each of the states who had been accustomed to the practice under colonial rule.
- » This created mass economic chaos as there were varying levels of control and currency values.
- » This became one of the primary reasons that the Articles of Confederation failed and had to be replaced with the Constitution.

Economic Battle Plan

Having learned from this experience, the Founders were inspired to prevent such a tragedy from befalling the nation a second time. The Constitution was written, after much deliberation, and left unaddressed the question as to whether Congress could issue paper money. It also allowed states to maintain gold and silver coin as legal tender. But states were prohibited from issuing unbacked paper currency.

"Paper money has had the effect in your state that it will ever have to ruin commerce, oppress the honest and open the door to every species of fraud and injustice." –George Washington

"Paper money is unjust. It's unconstitutional, for it affects the rights of property as much as taking away equal value in land." –James Madison

"Paper is poverty. It is the ghost of money and not money itself." –Thomas Jefferson

"To emit an unfunded paper as the sign of value ought not to continue a formal part of the Constitution, nor ever hereafter to be employed, being in its nature, pregnant with abuses and liable to be made the engine of imposition and fraud, holding out temptations equally pernicious to the integrity of government and to the morals of the people." –Alexander Hamilton

It is abundantly clear, the Founders despised paper money. And, Kevin explains that the United States government did not issue purely paper money for nearly three-quarters of a century. Why? Because Gouverneur Morris stood up and gave an impassioned speech and said, we cannot do this to our young country. Well, he had an impact. Almost unanimously, they removed "emit bills of credit" from the powers listed for Congress. And so we did not operate on unbacked paper money for three-quarters of a century.

Attention: America's Founders hated paper money and they set a precedent that lasted for three-quarters of a century.

3. Money In The Civil War Era

How, if the Founders hated paper money, did America end up where it is today?

There were two key moments in the late 1800s that began to shift America's perspective on money. In 1861, war broke out. The civil war waged on for four bloody and expensive years. Both the North and South issued paper money to cover the high costs of war. These currencies rose and fell in value regularly as the tides of war impacted their value. Eventually, the private banks could no longer convert paper money into gold and silver coins and an economic crisis began.

In 1863 The National Currency Banking Act was passed which replaced private paper notes with Federal paper money. Suddenly paper money was back and America was in danger, but only for seven more years.

"The Supreme Court ruled in 1870 that unbacked paper money was unconstitutional. That was Hepburn v. Griswold. Their decision was based on the idea that fiat money represented an unlawful taking, and violated the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution. But their ruling was quickly overturned in the very next court session, 1871, in the Knox-Parker decision. How? Why? Well, Republican President Ulysses S. Grant packed the Supreme Court with two new justices and paved the road to fiat money." –Kevin Freeman

How short-lived! Paper money was outlawed for only about one year before it was brought right back to weasel its way into American history. Unsurprisingly, it required a court-packing to push such a dangerous agenda through over the heads of the very same justices who had fought against it.

Attention: Paper money hurt the post-war economy and was declared unconstitutional but the decision was overturned a year later.

4. The 20th Century – Federal Reserve

The end of the 19th century was an era of rebuilding after the disastrous Civil War. That rebuilding led to economic prosperity in the early decades of the 20th century. Industries that had made money producing steel, coal, and eventually oil during the war were able to reinvest their earnings turning small companies into massive corporations.

Leaders of some of these businesses and the major banks of the time were pushing for a more centralized monetary system that could provide more printed money and be monitored by the banks.

“The Federal Reserve was established by Congress in 1913 and has become the de-facto monopoly supplier of American money. Now the Federal Reserve is privately owned by member banks, but it’s authorized by Congress to produce notes commonly referred to as dollar bills. And initially, the Fed was required to hold reserves capable of redeeming 40% of outstanding bills. That was later abolished... Separate from the Federal Reserve, the United States Treasury also issued bills and paper certificates starting in 1862, and they were redeemable in gold and silver. Later only silver.” –Kevin Freeman

The establishment of the Federal Reserve was the first time that such a centralized institution functioned in America since Andrew Jackson had defanged the older central bank.

Now the Federal Reserve, which is able to create its own monetary policy without Congressional approval, has become the financier of the US government. When the government needs more money, the Federal Reserve can always print more. With their monopoly on the U.S. dollar, this excessive printing has made the Federal Reserve notes essentially “Monopoly money.”

Attention: The Federal Reserve was established in the 20th century as a new central bank that can now essentially print unbacked paper money.

5. Gold

Federal Reserve paper money functioned for about twenty years as it was exchangeable for the equivalent gold or silver value.

There were two major changes that caused paper money to lose its backing and opened the door to value-shredding inflation.

“On April 5th, 1933, President Franklin Roosevelt signed Executive Order 6102 forbidding the hoarding of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates within the continental United States. This not only ended gold’s convertibility of Federal Reserve and U.S. Treasury notes, but it also led to the confiscation of gold coins from citizens.”

—Kevin Freeman

Roosevelt’s executive order was controversial, to say the least. At the time, gold was valued at $20.67 per troy ounce and the government paid citizens for the gold that was collected. However, after the order was completed, Roosevelt increased the price of gold to $35 per troy ounce which devalued the U.S. dollar by 58% in one day and robbed the citizens of wealth. This order lasted until 1974 when President Gerald Ford signed a bill that allowed American citizens to purchase and own gold again.

Sadly, before Ford’s presidency, Richard Nixon “temporarily” ceased any and all forms of convertibility to gold. However, instead of the intended temporary change, Henry Kissinger invented the new petro-dollar system which linked the US dollar to oil, and gold convertibility was lost to history.

“President Nixon ended any form of convertibility to gold in 1971 as a ‘temporary’ measure... Citizens could not redeem paper money for gold after 1933, but the Treasury did allow foreign governments that opportunity. When inflation was building, however, many foreign nations, led by Charles de Gaulle,

Economic Battle Plan

decided they'd rather have gold than dollars. The demand to withdraw was so great that Nixon feared it would bankrupt the Treasury, so he closed the gold window. His Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger, crafted a new way to support our currency. He created the petrodollar arrangement where Saudi Arabia was protected by America and agreed to price oil exclusively in dollars and to reinvest any excess financial reserves back into US Treasury bonds. And that arrangement stood for 50 years. Now, though, the Saudis have not only agreed to price oil in Chinese yuan, but they've also agreed to join the BRICs alliance. They want to take down the dollar." –Kevin Freeman

Without gold convertibility, the U.S. dollar became unbacked. The petrodollar arrangement served as a quasi-solution to back the US Dollar with oil. It was an agreement that could not last forever. Now that the agreement has fallen through and the US Dollar is being cleaved from oil, the US Dollar is under threat.

Even though Americans can purchase gold and silver today, the dollar has lost so much value that it is not affordable for the average American. The founders knew that if the average person could not access gold and silver, the wealthy elite would gain power over the masses. Gold and silver are supposed to be a just and equitable hedge from tyranny.

Warning: The US Dollar is unbacked and will lose its value rapidly. Now, more than ever, the average American needs access to transactable and convertible gold.

6. CBDC & The Gold Solution

As the U.S. dollar threatens to collapse, the government has decided not to re-institute a gold-backed dollar but instead is taking advantage of the opportunity to create a new Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC).

This new CBDC would give the government complete control over the people and is part of a larger scheme of globalist elites to capture and control all the people of every nation on Earth. If they can control your money, they can control you.

“And the one final note I will make is that if you think about the benefits of digital money, there are huge potential gains. It’s not just about digital forms of physical currency.

You can have programmability, you know, units of central bank currency with expiry dates. You could have, as I argue in my book, a potentially better and some people might see it or a darker world where the government decides that units of central bank money can be used to purchase some things, but not other things that it deems less desirable, like, say, ammunition or drugs or pornography or something of the sort. And that is very powerful in terms of the use of a CBDC.”

—Eswar Prasad, WEF Annual Meeting of the New Champions, June 2023

The World Economic Forum (WEF) and many other globalist groups praise CBDC and the control it will provide. They hate freedom and they desire to control the masses for their own gain.

CBDC is not a theory, it is a fact. FedNow is the current first phase required for the introduction of CBDC here in the United States.

- » In China, the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) has enjoyed complete control of its citizens by pairing CBDC with Covid-19 policies.
- » If people commit a crime, like jaywalking, they will receive a deduction in their checking account.
- » Instead of paying fines or having court dates, the government just removes the money instantly.
- » They are also able to activate and deactivate accounts at will or even control when and where accounts are accessible.

Say for example you wanted to fill up your tank and drive across the country. If the government decides you have used up your monthly carbon emission allowance, your account will not work at the pump.

How can CBDC be prevented? Sadly, it can’t unless done so by the Congress. However, the Founders of this great nation had enough foresight to know that tyrants could even be born here and seek to control the people whom they had declared free. For this reason, the Founders intentionally provided measures that the people could take to protect themselves from tyranny.

“This book is a treasure map to implementing state-based gold and silver money. Pieces of eight and gold doubloons... we can take that and we can add electronic capabilities, like the Glint app, to where you can tap to pay and pay with gold or silver. You can help us. What I need you to do is go to www.transactionalgold.com and use the “Take Action” button. We’re preparing the ground for swift passage of a bill that would make pirate money legal again, electronically offered by the state as legal tender.” –Kevin Freeman

Pirate Money is Kevin’s guide that explains how America can implement the freedom that honest money provides.

- » State-based gold and silver money is a safe haven from CBDC where your funds cannot be controlled by others.
- » This is the economic justice the Founders created and provided for us to maintain.
- » They knew the only fair and equitable monetary system was in gold and silver.
- » This makes gold and silver accessible and affordable for average Americans.

Attention: We can protect our financial liberty and provide a more just economic system for the American people with state-based gold and silver money.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE:

- » Unbacked U.S. Dollars are, in one sense, paper “Monopoly money.”
- » The U.S. dollar is under attack and rapidly losing buying power.
- » Our forefathers hated paper money and intended for us to use gold and silver
- » Kevin’s new book Pirate Money is easy to read and breaks down difficult topics in both history and law so you can understand them.
- » This is a treasure map to a more just, more secure, and more affordable economic system.
- » State-based gold and silver would protect you and your family from elite tyranny.

Economic Battle Plan

ACTION STEPS:

1. Check out Kevin's new book Pirate Money to learn more about the history of money and the founders' hidden treasure to save America.
2. Share the book with as many people as possible to get the word out
3. Make sure your representatives (local, state, and federal) read Pirate Money and understand how state-based gold and silver money will benefit all Americans.
4. Share this Economic Battle Plan™ with as many people as you can to help educate others on the History of Money and the Founders' plan for economic justice.
5. PRAY that God would use Pirate Money to inspire the change necessary to ensure economic freedom and justice for all Americans.

ONGOING ACTION STEPS:

1. Seek opportunities to inspire other Americans to stand up for what is right.
2. Send them this Economic Battle Plan™ and ask them what they are doing to stand for America and Liberty!
 - Elect Politicians that understand the need to preserve American Liberty.
 - Encourage and ask your elected officials to educate themselves.
 - Ask them how they are working to strengthen our education system and reverse the push for Marxist indoctrination.

These are big issues, if your representatives are not aware and working toward solutions directly or indirectly based on their committees, hold them accountable!

3. Watch out for programmable money. The dollar is being attacked and the WEF is working toward the Great Reset. We want to see the dollar stay strong by acting on the items above. We also believe it is good for Americans to diversify and have other options to pay such as with transactional gold and silver. Prepare your money for the coming war.

Your support for Texas Transactional Currency is critical! In less than 60 seconds you can let all of our Texas officials know that you want this bill to pass in the state of Texas and you are ready to sign up.

Take Action and help get Texas Transactional Currency passed! This can be the model for your state. Do this now and easily share this link with friends and on social media!

Show your support for the Texas Transactional Currency efforts. Learn more at www.TransactionaGold.com.

To make it easy, we have launched a targeted campaign where, with just a couple clicks, in less than 60 seconds, you can reach the Texas House and Senate, the governor, the lieutenant governor, the speaker, the attorney general, and all the key players in Austin! Let them know you want this now!!

Take Action NOW!! It will take less than 60 seconds and you can be a key part of getting this great idea advanced! Be one of the first to get your debit card when this passes into law.

You can also easily share this on Twitter, Facebook, Gab, with your friends asking to them join the campaign to support Texas Senate Bill- SB 2334.

NOTE: YOU DO NOT NEED TO LIVE IN TEXAS. TEXAS CAN HELP LEAD THE WAY FOR YOUR STATE TO OFFER SIMILAR CONVENIENCE OF TRANSACTIONAL CURRENCY BACKED BY SILVER OR GOLD.

Texas already has a Bullion Depository and by allowing the use of Texas Transactional Currency, average Americans can easily own gold and silver just like the wealthy do. As ATMs made banking accessible to normal people, this effort makes the Texas Bullion Depository accessible to all of America! With success, your state could be next to offer this option.

- 4. Check your investments to see if they are helping fund the agendas of Globalist Elites. If you have a financial advisor insist that they give you an update and encourage them to become part of the NSIC.

Seek out investment opportunities in patriotic innovations.

LIBERTY PASTORS

Biblical Economics

Pastor Paul Blair

1) Money is neutral.

Money, in and of itself, is neither good nor evil. It is only a tool to facilitate the store of energy and labor. It is used to facilitate trade. It is supposed to be used for good. However, the “love of money” - covetousness, obsession - is the root of all evil.

- 1 Tim 6:9-10 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

And this isn't just about wealthy people. A poor person can be just as guilty of greed and covetousness as a rich person. It is a heart issue. Material isn't bad. Materialism is.

2) All economic systems are capitalistic systems. The difference is who owns the capital.

After WW2, there was what history calls, “The Cold War.” Bullets weren't being fired, but there was a battle being waged between the two world super powers and their respective economic systems - Communism and Capitalism. That is misleading in several ways.

First, Capital, by definition, is the sum of goods or services needed for production. Every economy uses tractors and machinery to produce products, the difference being, who owns or controls the capital.

- Free market. Private citizens own and control the capital.
- Under fascism, private citizens own the title of the capital. The government exercises complete control over production.
- Communism is actually an illusion. Communism means that no one owns anything. Mankind is so good, we all agree to work and share in one big global commune.
- Under socialism, the governments owns everything...including the people. The government tells you what to do, when to do it, where to live, what to eat.

He who owns the tools, makes the rules. When economic freedom is lost, political freedom perishes with it.

3) Socialism/communism never works.

- a. Would you go to class, study and do the homework if everyone in your class was going to get the same grade?

Communism was not the idea of the Pilgrims, but it was initially forced upon them.

- Religious and civil liberty was the goal of the Pilgrims, but for others it was a business investment.
- Unable to foot the bill of the move entirely on their own, investors invested in this New England settlement and all were shareholders of the Plymouth Plantation.

After enduring the first hard winter and the arrival of Squanto, the Pilgrims used a general storehouse for their produce – as was the directive of the Company of investors. They wanted their share of any profits.

What was the result? Human nature takes over, even Christian men.

Consider what Governor Bradford had to say about this experience in his “History of Plymouth Plantation.”

For this community was found to breed much confusion and discontent, and retard much employment that would have been to their benefit and comfort. For the young men that were most able and fit for labor and service did repine that they should spend their time and strength to work for the other men’s wives and children, without any recompense. The strong, or man of parts, had no more in the division of victuals and clothes than he that was weak and not able to do a quarter the other could; this was thought injustice. The aged and graver men to be ranked and equalized in labors, and victuals and clothes, etc., with the meaner and younger sort, thought it some indignity and disrespect unto them. And for men’s wives to be commanded to do service for other men, as dressing their meat, washing their clothes, etc., they deemed it a kind of slavery, neither could many husbands well brook it.” (Bradford’s History, p. 213)

He summarized:

The experience that was had in this common course and condition, tried sundry years, and that amongst godly and sober men, may well evince the vanity of that conceit of Plato’s and other ancients, applauded by some of the later times, that the taking away of property, and bringing in community into commonwealth, would make them happy and flourishing; as if they were wiser than God.

Just like the example with grades in school that I gave a moment ago, without the promise of reward, man is not motivated to work. Why do we look forward to Fridays and not Mondays?

We got to try Communal living on a small scale with a very high character test group AND it failed. If communism did not work for small pious community, who thinks it will work for 320 million mostly pagan people?

Fortunately, it didn't take the Pilgrims long to give families their own personal plots of land and Bradford writes: "But this time harvest was come, and things was changed, to the rejoicing of the hearts of many, for which they blessed God. And the effect of their particular planting was well seen, for all had, one way and other pretty well to bring the year about, and some of the abler sort and more industrious had to spare, and sell to others, so as any general want or famine hath not been amongst them to this day."

4) All government spending is inefficient.

Government purchasing is ALWAYS inefficient. It's not a "Republican v. Democrat" thing. It is human nature. Let me explain.

There are three types of purchases – First, Second and Third Party.

- First party purchasing means you are spending your money to purchase a product or service you intend to use or consume. Naturally, you are concerned about both price and quality.
- Second party purchasing means Spending Someone else's money on something you intend to consume or spending your money on something someone else is going to use or consume.
- In the prior example, you aren't at all concerned about price (you aren't paying), but you sure are concerned about the quality.
- In the latter, you are concerned about price (you're footing the bill), but not since you're not consuming it, you're a little more flexible on the quality.
- Third party purchasing is when you are spending someone else's money to purchase a product or service that you yourself will not be consuming. Consequently, you are neither concerned about price or quality.

All government spending is third party purchasing and by its very nature is not concerned about either price or quality. Understanding this truth, we must demand two things.

- First, government must remain small. It must only oversee things which the free market cannot.
- Second, government spending must be audited constantly to root out waste, fraud and abuse.

There is no such thing as public funds.

5) Taxation without consent of those taxed is slavery and theft.

Here's how taxes are supposed to work. The people create the government. The people recognize that there's a certain amount of money needed to fund whatever responsibilities they've delegated to the government they create. So, the people agree to contribute a certain amount in order to fund the government.

You don't have a right to take something that belongs to someone else. It is not yours. It is their private property.

Let's imagine that your neighbor owns two televisions and you don't have any. So, you say, "Hey, I need a television. He's got two."

So, when your neighbor goes out to dinner, you break in to his house, take a television and go put it in your house. Liberalism calls that fairness as now you both have a television.

But, what have you done? You've stolen something that doesn't belong to you.

Likewise, do those two televisions belong to the government? No, they belong to that individual. So, the government doesn't have the right to say, "You know what? That man has two televisions, his neighbor has none. Out of fairness, we'll take one from the man that has two and give it to the man that has none. Not only does this punish the man who is working and rewards the man who is not working, the TV's don't belong to the government in the first place. Therefore, the government is just as guilty of stealing as in the first example.

If the government can simply declare, "You're now going to pay 20% in income taxes," then why can't he come back tomorrow and say, "You're going to pay 50% in income taxes?" Why can't he come back the day after that, and say, "You're going to pay 100% income taxes

Additional note on taxation. Just as the tithe was in the Bible, everyone should contribute the same proportional amount.

Benjamin Franklin is credited with saying, "Democracy is two wolves and a lamb voting on what to have for lunch. Liberty is a well-armed lamb contesting the vote!"

- Let's focus on just the first half of that statement. Do you see any problem with two wolves and a lamb voting on dinner?
- What about two wolves and a lamb voting on tax policy?
- Only two people can take money from you by coercion: A robber and the government. One is called illegal, the other is called legal, but the result is the same.

Some claim that is not fair. Make the wealthy pay more. They do. If the taxation rate was 10% of gross income, then a man making $100,000 would pay $10,000 in taxes while a person making $50,000 would pay half. This is EVERYONE paying their fair share.

Additional note on taxation #2: Whatever you subsidize you're going to increase. Whatever you tax, you're going to decrease. Therefore, we subsidize unwed mothers and implement a progressive tax on income.

The power to tax is the power to control. By taxing and then distributing the government gains power over all people.

6) Inflation is an invisible tax.

Inflation is caused when too few products are being chased by too many dollars. Inflation is not prices going up, it is devaluing the purchasing power of the dollar by inflating the supply of money.

Why are diamonds valuable and seashells aren't? Supply.

Politicians gain support by spending money – our money. However, taxes are unpopular. So inflation is a popular way to increase spending without raising taxes – but your wealth is still being diminished. If you doubled the supply of money, the purchasing power of your savings is cut in half.

Historically, we know that inflation contributed to the collapse of the Roman Empire as what began as pure gold and silver coins were debased with metal alloys allowing the Caesars to increase their power by inflating their supply of money. Sadly, this action devalued existing currency held by its citizens eventually leading to their poverty.

7) Free market makes everyone richer.

Lowes buys wood in quantity. Let's say they mark up their wood 100%. I am not being gouged, because there is a Home Depot and an Ace Hardware and a Hope Lumberyard, all competing for my business with quality products, good service and lower prices.

Socialists will say the economy is a fixed pie. One person has too much at the expense of another having too little. This is not true. There is no fixed pie of an economy to divvy up. A healthy free economy will grow and all can benefit. For Example, imagine an individual spent $25 to import some special wood and sold it to me for $50. I take the $50 of wood and make a set of bookshelves and sell it on eBay for $100. A farmer who took $25 in seeds and grew $100 worth of wheat which he sold at market, bought my bookshelf. Everyone was free to make a choice which, in their opinion, enriched their lives. We all profited. What started out as $50 in wholesale supplies, turned into $300 of wealth. The economy is not a fixed pie. We don't gain only when someone else loses.

Because of profit, expansion is needed, people are hired, equipment is bought, which creates more jobs. As people compete for business, they work hard to improve their product to attract customers. There is an incentive to lower prices to attract customers, gain a bigger market share and make more money.

- In 2004, I bought a 42" plasma television for $5500. You can now buy a much better quality and much thinner 75" television for $1000 and the same size 42" for about $250. In 2004, few people could afford a 42" television, but in 2018, lots of people can because competition has driven the price down. People's lives are enriched by the free market.

When someone has a monopoly, then there is no competition. If there is no competition, you are not motivated to improve your product, operate more efficiently, or lower your price.

Government tinkering is always the wrong thing.

- In a free market, every transaction between two people is by choice and the transaction enriches the lives of both.
- The intersection of supply and demand establishes a fair price. The fair price is determined by what price a company can operate at a profit and a price that people are willing to pay for that product.
- If the government tinkers with price ceilings, the result is shortages as companies don't produce if they aren't profitable. Price floors cause surpluses as people won't buy something that's priced too high.
- In a free market, the customer determines the price of goods, not a greedy seller.

Adam Smith who wrote "Wealth of Nations" in 1776 said, "Self-interest, balanced by free competition promotes society's interest."

8) Greater the government, the greater the poverty. The greater the freedom, the greater the wealth.

- We have already seen that government spending is grossly inefficient.
- We have seen that subsidies encourage certain outcomes, while taxes discourage certain outcomes.
- We have seen how price controls affect the market and cause surpluses and shortages.
- We have also seen how the free market always produces the best product at the best price and makes everyone wealthier.

If you earn $100, then you can spend $100. However, if the government takes 25% in taxes, then your purchasing power has been reduced to $75. Are you richer or poorer? What about everyone in your community?

The government doesn't produce anything, it simply takes efficient money out of the economy.

Government can't create jobs; they can only inhibit job creation with taxes and regulations.

After WW2 there was a battle for Korea, between communists and those who desired western freedom. By 1953, an armistice was signed, and North and South Korea recognized a border along the 38th Parallel. North Korea became a Communist Economy under Communist Leadership and religion was illegal. South Korea enjoyed a free market and was open to missionaries and Christianity. The satellite photo gives a stark contrast between the two.

The greater the government, the greater the poverty. The greater the freedom, the greater the wealth.

National Security Investment Consultant Institute

One (and maybe the #1) “Big Idea” we’ve developed is the NSIC (National Security Investment Consultant) Institute.

Because we are in an Economic War, the main weapon is money. There are three things you can do with money: give, spend, and invest. While Americans at least try to align their giving with their values, most are very poor with their spending and especially bad with their investing. Our spending fuels Chinese corporations that serve the Chinese Communist Party and woke American companies taking us down a dark societal path. Even worse, our investing actually underwrites those same dark elements, in some cases even designing military weapons aimed at our families. The dangerous fad of Wall Street is ESG (Environment, Social, Governance) investing which is purposed to end the use of traditional American energy, teach Critical Race Theory in schools, and install a gender/transgender and race quota system on the board of all public companies. It sounds shocking but is sadly true in the extremes.

Unfortunately, Hollywood, the media, and Wall Street are in large part pushing this radical agenda with your money. In particular, the Index Fund companies (Blackrock, State Street, and Vanguard) have largely promoted ESG even while hypocritically funding China (which fails every ESG test). We have surveyed Americans and found that the majority prefer to invest in ways that support their values, taking care of family and country. In fact, investors overwhelmingly prefer LSV (Liberty, Security, Values) over ESG. The only question is how to achieve that?

The NSIC Institute was developed to train and equip client-facing financial advisors to help clients generate Liberty, Security, and Values with their investing and spending. We offer an 8-week course through Liberty University. Upon successful completion, advisors are invited to join the NSIC Institute in order to share ideas, work together, and achieve goals for investors. Our goal is to train 10,000 liberty-minded financial advisors (stockbrokers, CPAs, investment managers, insurance agents, and financial planners) who will represent as much as $1 trillion of investment capital. Working together, there will be sufficient funding for all major projects we envision and many more. At the individual level, it seems hopeless. What can a small portfolio do? But working together, we can be “the little ships that save the world,” just as they did at Dunkirk more than 80 years ago.

We successfully piloted the curriculum and class at Oklahoma Wesleyan University and Hillsdale College’s Kirby Center before our official launch at Liberty University. Ask yourself: Do you want a financial advisor serving Wall Street and ESG? Or do you prefer a financial advisor who can help us win the Economic War and preserve Liberty, Security, and Values for your family and future generations?

We hold the weekly online classes from LibertyHawk Ranch, and we conduct advanced training on property. In addition, we review creative alternative “big idea” opportunities on this campus. Think of LibertyHawk as the West Point, Annapolis, and Air Force Academy rolled into one to train the front-line heroes who will lead us to victory in the Economic War we face. Learn more at www.NSIC.org. If you have an advisor you would like to nominate for our training, you can do so at www.EconomicWarRoom.com/advisor.

LSV/What Investors Really Want

The National Security Investment Consultant Institute (NSIC) equips and certifies investment advisors in LSV (Liberty, Security, Values) Investing.

While some investors intentionally seek out so-called ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance) investments, studies show that the vast majority of Americans not only do not want their money harnessed to leftist political causes in this way, they don't even realize that it's happening.

Most Americans care about America: freedom, national security, traditional values. Most of them prefer that their money advance those beliefs. And unlike the activists promoting ESG, most of them believe that ROI counts.

"78% of investors want to work with an advisor who shares their values."

– John McLaughlin Poll 2020

When polled by the Money Management Institute, clients clearly listed "Family" and "My Country" as far more important than ESG or any other criteria. Nothing else came close. Family values and patriotism win hands down.

"Your money should advance what you believe in, starting with your own family's future. The NSIC Institute trains and certifies your investment advisors to help you achieve exactly that."

–Rod Martin, Former PayPal Mafia and CEO of The Martin Organization

According to Nielsen Media Research, the baby boomer market, in the next three years will not only control 70 percent of the nation's disposable income, but will also inherit $15 trillion. Yet, as they accumulate this wealth, only 47% have identified a purpose for their wealth.

Bank of America found that while a majority of high-net-worth respondents have taken practical steps to protect and sustain wealth, only about half have a clearly defined purpose for their wealth or have taken deliberate steps to make the most of it.

With a program of education and mobilization, investors are able to put their money towards impact investments that reflect their values and help protect America as it was founded. Without specific actions taken now and a better defined purpose for their wealth, there is great risk that their wealth transfer will not be to their children, but to a government entity that supposedly knows what is best for them.
